

In Good Spirits

Slip into the party mood with the latest in alcohol, nightlife and live entertainment

WORDS DEBORAH NG + RACHEL LIM

ABSOLUTELY SMOOTH

Vodka on the rocks may not be the drink of choice for most people, but a new premium vodka is out to change that. Absolut recently launched Absolut Elyx, a premium vodka that is manually distilled in a copper column still from 1929. Presented in a squared version of the original Absolut bottle, the single-batch vodka has a subtle floral and fruity taste with a long, smooth finish and is best enjoyed on the rocks or in classic cocktails where the purity of the vodka shines through. After September, Absolut Elyx will be available at select bars islandwide, till then, vodka lovers will be able to find it at 1128.

Available at 1128, 56 Tanglin Road, Tanglin Post Office, tel. 6834 112

PLANNING A GAME OF THRONES-THEMED PARTY?

Whether you're dressing up as a Catelyn Stark or Daenerys Targaryen, this glass-bottomed tankard ($175) from Royal Selangor allows you to check the clarity and colour of your mead, while its pewter walls keep your drink cool. Bottoms up.

(WO)MANNING THE DECKS

The FFF Girl DJ Bootcamp is back for its fifth year and looking for women who want to go at being DJs. Over a series of four Saturdays, eight participants will attend lectures and demonstrations before getting hands-on practice with industry-standard DJ equipment under a mentor. This year's mentor line-up includes DJs Cherry Chan, Debbie Chia, Natalie Tan (aka. Pixiedub) and Pamm Hong (aka. Suki Quasimodo), as well as new faces Vivian Wang from The Observatory and Zushan Benny, resident DJ at Butter Factory. The bootcamp will culminate in a graduation bash on 24 October at Zouk Wine Bar, where the freshly minted graduates will take over the decks to announce their arrival on the local club scene.

Closing date for entries is 16 September, visit welovefff.com for more information